District Champions

The Gorilla hoopsters enjoyed one of the most successful seasons that they have had in recent years. They wound up the season with a 13-11 won-lost record. They also had 7 seniors on the first ten, which will, of course, probably be somewhat of a problem for next year.

The Gorillas started out the season by playing Colome and they came out on top 73 to 45. The next game was with Murdo (The No. 1 rated team in the state). Gregory this time came out on the short end 57-61. This is just about the way the games worked out for the Gorillas all season, first winning one or two and then losing one or two. They have played some of the top teams in the state, for instance, Murdo, White

River (State "B" Champions), Menno (No. 6 on the AP Poll), Platte (No. 3 on the AP Poll), Fairfax (19 on Poll.)

To wind up a fairly successful season, the underdog Gorillas went into District 28 play and took out the highly favored Fairfax Broncs 56 to 51. Then went on to take the championship with a win over Bone-steel 57 to 40. This enabled them to enter the Regional Tournament.

The Gorillas entered the Region 7 contest with their spirits high. In the first thrilling game, Gregory beat Centerville 54 to 45. Menno bowled over Platte's smooth running club, which then would leave the Region 7 champions to be between Gregory and Menno. In a hard fought contest, the Menno Wolves overpowered the Gorillas for the Championship.

One of the highlights in the Gorilla season was the winning of the first place trophy in the Lake Andes New Years Tournament.

- HEELAN ----- Our first game away from home, proved our lack of game experience. As a result a shift in the line replaced the weakness and injuries. The final score was 32-0 in favor of Heelan.
- BURKE ----- The Bulldogs lost their strength as a hard charging line and a balanced back-field batted down their aerial attack. The final result was 7-6 in favor of the Gorillas in the first conference game of the season.
- WAGNER ----- The lack of stamina by the Wagner team caused their defeat on a very hot Friday afternoon 30-7.
- PLATTE ----- The Panthers racked up the second defeat for the Gorillas 19-0. This loss can be blamed on overconfidence and a key injury.
- MISSION ----- This victory of 34-13 over Mission was the beginning of a long march to the championship.
- CHAMBERLAIN ----- The Black Angels went to Hades as they went down with a 40-19 loss before the Gorillas. This was the second conference win as the Gorillas were well on the way to the conference championship.
- MILLER ----- The defeat of Winner by Miller promised the Gorillas a taste of the victory to come. Their single wing plays were well scouted as the final result was 26-6 in favor of the Gorillas.
- WINNER ----- The Rosebud Conference Championship hung in the balance in the final game of the season. Gregory was well scouted as the half time score for Winner was 12-0. A strong third quarter for the Gorillas showed 13-12. Winner made their final drive early in the fourth quarter making the score 18-13. The weary and determined Gorillas pushed over the winning touch-down in the last few seconds of the game, leaving the Gorillas the undisputed Champions of the Rosebud Conference.

Emcee, Emmett Kotrba presides at the head table, along with officers from the Junior and Senior Class.

"Moonlight and Roses"

"Moonlight and Roses, bring wonderful memories to me." In a garden of roses the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom was held. This was the first time an all night prom was held. The banquet was served by the Junior's mothers. LeRoy Hammon and Betty Van Cleave furnished the entertainment. The upper classmen and their dates danced to the music of Don Shaw and his orchestra. A mid-night movie and a sunrise breakfast wound up the gay activities.

The Junior Class Play, "You'll Die Laughing," was a bombshell of mirth and mystification in three acts. The entire action took place in Creepy Castle, a rambling old farmhouse near the Missouri village of Riverton. The cast included a group of Tommy Upton's college friends, one of his teachers and his father. Their aim was to frighten Tommy to keep him from going to so many horror movies.

The Senior play, "Beauty and the Beef", was a smashing success, too. When a girl who was a Junior Quiz Program student "poisons" a football team, there is bound to be trouble. The play revolved around a girl and her family who had moved to Winnebago, Minn. She fell head over heels in love with the beef, who seemed to be a brain only in football. Then Beef was suspended, and there wasn't a chance of their winning the game with Hastings. But with the help of some epicac, "Beauty postpones the game, and Winnebago won after all.

Chow line in the new dorm is quite a privilege. Town and country students alike take advantage of the good food served by M.s. Olson, Mrs. Schlaht and Mrs. Powell.

The janitors who keep our educational institution clean. They are: Mr. Blake and Mr. Wiedeman.

The students who have gone to school with each other for 12 successive years are, left to right: Emmett Kotrba, Larry Schlaht, Wayne McCollam, Dennis Rundall, Terry Schlaht. Back row: Sandy Schlaht, Barbara Graham, Myrna Hennrich, Patsy Locke, Marilee Krizan and Sharon Whitley.

Bits Kayl, Don McKenna and Nancy Von Seggern have also gone to school for 12 years together.
